About Digital Fantasia

We are proud to say that since its inception in 1982, Digital Fantasia has become one of the country's foremost suppliers of high quality Software for Home Computers. It is our strictest policy that any Software we produce should maintain an extremely high standard, be completely Bug-Free and above all enjoyable to use.

With these standards in mind, we shall carry on expanding and increasing our range of Software for most popular makes of Home Computers. If you have written any Software that you believe is in keeping with the high standards outlined above, we would like to hear from you. In particular we would like to see Adventure games, Arcade games and Educational Software. If we decide to market your software, we can guarantee excellent Royalty rates, international exposure and distribution that is second to none. If your Software does not meet our standards in any way we can give you expert advice on how to improve your programming techniques etc. so that you will eventually be able to produce Software that "does the standards".
